Carlos Enrique Schickendantz is a Partner at Andersen Tax & Legal in Uruguay. He works with clients from the United States, Europe and Latin America, advising them on matters such as:

- Structured finance and corporate law.
- Set-up of local companies.
- Investments in agribusiness.
- Real estate law.
- Trusts.

Before joining Andersen Tax & Legal, Enrique was a 3rd generation Conveyance Attorney and Partner of Escribanía Schickendantz, founded in 1927. He was also the President and Founder of Gap Servicios Fiduciarios, the first fiduciary company registered with the Uruguayan Central Bank. He was a Founder and Director of Solution Alliance and Co-founder of Fischer & Schickendantz, in 2007 and 2009 respectively.

Currently, Enrique co-manages the firm's Real Estate Law Department, engaged in commercial, residential and agricultural real-estate transactions throughout Uruguay.

Some important deals that Enrique has led include:

- Structuring the finance of credit lines for the purchase of cattle, equipment and agricultural supplies for agricultural companies.
- Legal structuring of residential real estate projects.
- Advising mining companies on real estate and corporate law, including the negotiation and purchase of land.
- Advising on the expansion plan of one of the most important supermarket chains in Uruguay.
- Negotiation and implementation of real estate acquisitions and construction contracts for the premises.
