Sofia Varela

Associate – Montevideo

Sofía Varela is an Attorney, Associate of the Residency and Immigration división at Andersen in Uruguay.

As an attorney, she assists our clients with their immigration and relocation needs, whether they are individuals or companies that are settling in the country and relocating their employees.

In this sense, she collaborates with the legal department in the entry of dependent personal and senior staff of companies into the country, as well as in the correct choice of the immigration process.

Besides, she also assists individuals and their families in the entry and settlement in the country, getting involved not only in the migratory process but also assisting in the relocation in our country (living, study, health, opening bank account, among others).

In the Department of Residency and Relocation she is responsible for the Residency applications for non-Mercosur residents (and associated countries), which are processed in the different offices of the National Migration Office in the country.

She is currently studying for a degree in Notary Public at the University of Montevideo.
